

EMERGING ISSUES WITH TRAFFICKED YOUTH

Wednesday, January 11, 2012, 6:00-8:00pm
New York City Bar Association

Featured speakers include:

Jayne Bigelsen

Director of Anti-Human Trafficking Initiatives at Covenant House International

Suzanne Tomatore

Director of the Immigrant Women & Children Project at the City Bar Justice Center

Martina Vandenberg

Partner at Jenner & Block LLP

Discussion moderated by:

Laura Matthews-Jolly

Equal Justice Works Fellow, Sponsored by Greenberg Traurig

Please join us at the New York City Bar Association on National Human Trafficking Awareness Day for a panel discussion on emerging issues with trafficked youth. Survivors under the age of 18 are grossly underserved in the NYC area. This discussion will identify unmet legal needs, suggest possible solutions, and present opportunities for pro bono attorneys.

Light Dinner Will Be Provided

This discussion is free; however, space is limited.

Please RSVP to lmattews-jolly@nycbar.org by January 6, 2012 with your name and organization.

Co-Hosted by:

